60 MINUTES

04/05/98

"The Gulag"- a network of labor camps which stretched from Moscow to Siberia was thought to have disappeared with the dissolution of the Soviet Union. But according to Amnesty International some gulags still exist, including Lager 155 in the Republic of Kazakhstan, where boys as young as 14 who have committed relatively minor crimes suffer malnutrition, beatings and hard labor (C: Ed Bradley - P: Jeanne Solomon Langley)

"Da Mayor"- a profile of Willie Brown, mayor of San Francisco. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine)

"The Sins of the Father and the Mother?"- examines the legal implications of a civil law suit involving Marsha Norskog whose daughter was murdered by 17-year-old Steven Pfiel. The Chicago woman is suing the boys' parents for unspecified damages, charging that they too were responsible because they were negligent as parents who did nothing to protect the community from their son. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin)

Andy Rooney Topic: "The Mail" - response to the Kathleen Willey interview

Updates: "The Crowded Skies" (OAD: 02/22/98); "An Honest Mistake" (OAD: 01/04/98)

04/12/98

"The Smallest of the Small"- modern technology permits the survival of micropreemies, infants whose ages at birth are measured by weeks and are prone to devastating mental and physical disabilities. The parents of Sidney Miller, one of these infants, requested that doctors not use heroic measures to save their baby. This was ignored and they have filed a "wrongful birth" law suit against Woman's Hospital of Texas (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)

"Politics, Privacy and the Pub"- a report on the debate going on in Boston over an article in The Boston Globe which suggested that gubernatorial candidate Ray Flynn had a drinking problem which affected the performance of his public duties. The paper's editor claims that he felt an obligation to inform readers, while critics charge that the article was a hatchet job (C: Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson)

"Data Smog"- an examination of the impact of the vast amount of information to which technology has exposed us. Includes an interview with David Shenk, computer whiz and author of Data Smog (C: Morley Safer - P: Harry Moses)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Names"- what people choose to be called

04/19/98

"Double Standard?"- focuses on charges that the U.S. Navy knowingly put two female pilots -- one of whom died in a fatal crash -- into an aircraft squadron despite the fact that they were unqualified. Flight instructor Lt. Jerry Burns says that the Navy is responsible for the pilot's death because they were responding to pressure to advance women. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson)

"Chris Rock"- an interview with controversial black comic Chris Rock (C: Ed Bradley - P: Paul & Holly Fine)

"The Nurse Will See You Now"- a report on Nurse Practitioners, who have taken over many of the functions of doctors all across the country. Proponents claim that the highly trained professionals provide a cost effective and sometimes better alternative to the primary care physician. Critics, including doctors, argue that public health is being put in the hands of less and less qualified people (C: Morley Safer - P: Miriam Weintraub)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Reviews The Times" - what Andy thinks of The New York Times

60 MINUTES (continued)

- 04/26/98 "I.G."- the lives of thousands of Americans with crippled or nonexistent immune systems depend on I.G. (immune globulin), a drug that has become dangerously scarce and often exorbitantly expensive. Representatives of drug companies blame the shortage on the popularity of the drug, but in fact U.S. companies are shipping about one-fifth of the supply overseas where it commands a higher price (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
- "The Piano Man"- an interview with singer/musician/composer Billy Joel. (C: Steve Kroft - P: John Hamlin)
- "Turning Around Denny's"- a report on 'We Can! II Workshops,' racial sensitivity seminars held for managers at Denny's in the aftermath of discrimination lawsuits which cost the fast food chain $46 million. The goal of the seminars is to enable Denny's employees to give courteous and efficient service regardless of a customer's race. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)
- Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy On Tobacco" - tobacco should be illegal
- 48 HOURS
- 04/02/98 "To Stop A Stalker"- examines the crime of stalking -- a problem that affects as many as ten million Americans at some time in their lives.
